

National Role Conceptions and Japan–Turkey Bilateral Relations

日時：2020年1月23日（木）17:00～18:30

場所：神戸大学 国際文化学研究科 学術交流ルーム（E410）

講師：Bahadır Pehlivan Türk

(Assist. Prof., TOBB University of Economics and Technology)

セミナー概要

The framework of role theory has been developed in foreign policy analysis to explain the behavior of states in the international system. However, it has not been applied as a tool for the analysis of bilateral relations. This research analyses Japan–Turkey relations from the framework of national role conceptions by dividing it into six distinct phases in accordance to the different roles assumed by these countries since the beginning of the relations up until today.
