

JSPS Core-to-Core Program

KOBE WORKSHOP 2021

2021.2.16(TUE)-17(WED) *JST

@ KOBE UNIVERSITY

VENUE: Online (Zoom)

ORGANIZED BY: Research Center for Promoting Intercultural Studies (Promis)
Graduate School of Intercultural Studies, Kobe University
1-2-1 Tsurukabuto, Nada-ku, Kobe-shi, Hyogo, Japan, 657-8501

FOR INQUIRES: Email: core2core.kobe@gmail.com

ADMISSION: Free BOOKING: bit.ly/kobews2021

* Details about how to access Zoom will be informed shortly after your booking.

* All the times listed below will be in Japan Standard Time (JST)

Day1 (16 February)

Opening Remarks

17:00-17:15 Kazunari Sakai (Professor, Kobe University)

Philosophy of Law

Chair: Tetsu Sakurai (Professor, Kobe University)

17:15-19:30 (135min)

Rainer Keil (Faculty of Law, University of Heidelberg)

“The Human Right to Asylum in the Work of Hugo Grotius”

Stefan Schlegel (University of Bern)

“Did International Human Rights Protection Trigger a Copernican Revolution for Immigration Law?”

Tatsuya Yokohama (Professor, Shizuoka University)

“Movement and Belonging: Moral Significance of Membership for Social Integration between Migrants and Host Countries' Members”

Discussant: Mauro Zamboni (Professor, Stockholm University)

Open Discussion

Day2 (17 February)

Cultural Policy and Migration

Chair: Akemi Minamida (JSPS Postdoctoral Fellow, Kyushu University)

17:00-19:05 (125min)

Pierre-William Fregonese (Research Fellow, Thucydide Centre, Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas University)

“Soft Power at the Time of Pandemic: Upheavals and Continuity of the Cultural Industries”

Daniel Goh(Deputy Head of Department of Sociology, National University of Singapore)

“The Impact of Covid-19 on Migrant Mobilities, Multiculturalism and Integration in Singapore”

Discussant: Gianluca Gatta (Associate Professor, Kobe University)

Discussant: Mikako Suzuki (JSPS Postdoctoral Fellow, Rikkyo University)

Open Discussion

Closing Remarks

19:05-19:20 Kaoru Aoyama (Professor, Kobe University)